ASSISTANCE TO NATIONAL TOURISM PREMIUM
TRAVEL ASSISTANCE*Chapter I
Contract Definitions, Objects and Coverages*Clause 1 - Definitions

INSURER – RNA Seguros de Assistência, S.A.

POLICYHOLDER – BONUS Mediação de Seguros Lda

POLICY - 2020-959-00000004

INSURED PERSON - The Person whose life, health or physical integrity is insured, being the Holder of the policy appearing on the list to be sent by the Policyholder to the Insurer.

BENEFICIARY - The natural person in favour of whom the Insurer's benefit resulting from the insurance contract reverses to.

ACCIDENT - The event due to a sudden, external, violent and unrelated cause of the Policyholder, the Insured Person and the Beneficiary, which produces bodily injuries, temporary disability, permanent disability or death, clinically and objectively verified.

DISEASE - Any sudden and unpredictable change in the health status of the Insured Person not caused by an accident and confirmed by a competent medical authority, which prevents the normal continuation of the course established.

CLAIM - The verification, in whole or in part, of the event that causes the triggering of the risk coverage provided for in the contract;

ASSISTANCE SERVICE - Service performed by an entity that organizes and provides, on behalf of the Insurer, the coverages granted by this special condition, whether of a pecuniary nature or in the case of the provision of services.

Clause 2 - Object of the Contract

The Insurer guarantees to the Insured Person, under the terms of the respective policy and up to the limit of the insured capital in relation to each of the risks covered, an indemnity under the terms of Chapter V.

Clause 3 - Coverages of the Contract

Diseases and accidents or other responsibilities duly identified in Chapter II are exclusively guaranteed under the policy whenever their origin occurred during their stay in Portugal.

Chapter II
Risks Covered

The Insurer guarantees the coverage, by this contract, of the following risks regardless of whether they occur during the Insured Person's professional and / or extra-professional activity.

In the latter case, risks that may be guaranteed by compulsory Occupational Accident insurance are excluded.

1. Scope of Travel Assistance coverage*1.1. Medical Information

In the event of a medical emergency, the Insurer, through the Assistance Services, will provide information on Hospitals, Clinics and Doctors best suited to the clinical situation of the Insured Person.

1.2. Sending a Doctor to the Hotel or Tourist Resort

In the event of a medical emergency, the Insurer, through the Assistance Services, guarantees the sending of a doctor to the hotel or residence where the Insured Person is staying, supporting the travel expenses. This coverage excludes all and any routine medical consultations and the doctor's fees, which will be previously informed to the Insured Person.

Alternatively, or whenever the Insured Person prefers, an online medical consultation can be held.

1.3. Medical Advice

Through the 24-hour telephone support line, the Insured Person may request medical information from the Insurer's Assistance Services for medical or simple advice.

1.4. Medical, Surgical, Pharmaceutical and Hospital Expenses in Portugal

If, as a result of illness or accident during the period of validity of the policy, the Insured Person needs medical, surgical, pharmaceutical or hospital assistance, the

Insurer, through the Assistance Services, will support up to the maximum limit of € 25.000.00, or will reimburse, upon prior agreement and justifications:

- medical and surgical expenses and fees;
- pharmaceutical expenses prescribed by a doctor;
- hospitalization expenses.

If this coverage is used due to illness, in points a) and b) a deductible of € 200.00 per claim is applied to the Insured Person.

1.5. Ambulance and Rescue Services to the nearest hospital

If the Insured Person suffers injuries or falls ill during the period of validity of the policy, when the clinical situation justifies it, the Assistance Services, through its Medical Team, will take care of:

- The means and costs of transportation to the nearest clinic or hospital;
- Surveillance by the medical team of the Assistance Service, in collaboration with the injured or sick Insured Person's assistant physician, in monitoring the appropriate measures for the best treatment to follow;
- Organization and cost of this transfer by the most appropriate means of transport.

In any case, the means of transport to be used will be decided by the medical team of the Assistance Services.

1.6. Repatriation to the place of origin

If the Insured Person suffers injuries or falls ill during the period of validity of the policy and is unable to return by the means originally provided, the Insurer, through the assistance services, will organize the return transport to the place of origin, up to the limit stipulated in the attached table.

This coverage is extended to spouses or common-law partners, descendants and direct ascendants of the Insured Person, up to a limit of 4 persons, whenever one of the elements has tested positive for Covid-19.

In any case, the means of transport to be used will be decided by the medical team of the Assistance Services and must be in a commercial airline.

1.7. Repatriation to the place of origin when in terminal stage or similar

When there are cases in which the insured persons become paraplegic, quadriplegic and similar states, including vegetative states or non-regressive clinical situations within 15 days and which prevent the return of the insured person on a commercial airline, the Insurer will organize, through the assistance services, the transport back to the Public Hospital closest to the insured person's residence.

In any case, the means of transport to be used will be decided by the medical team of the Assistance Services.

1.8. Accompaniment of Hospitalized Insured Person

If the Insured Person is hospitalized as a result of illness or accident, and if the Insured Person's condition does not recommend repatriation or immediate return, the Insurer, through the Assistance Services, will bear the expenses of hotel stay of a family member or person designated by the Insured Person, who is already on site, up to the limit of € 150.00 per day, up to a maximum of € 1,500.00. If the companion's ticket cannot be used when the hospitalized Insured Person returns, the Insurer, through the Assistance Services, also guarantees the return to the country where the Insured Person's companion started the trip.

In any case, the maximum capital limit provided for this coverage is € 5,000.00.

1.9. Children Charges

In the case of hospitalization of the Insured Person, and when the latter is accompanied by children under the age of 18, the Insurer, through the Assistance Services, guarantees the children's accompaniment through the hiring of a Nanny up to the maximum limit of 5 days to a maximum of € 200.00.

Alternatively, if the hospitalization period is longer than 10 days, the Insured Person responsible for the child(ren) may choose to repatriate them to the country where the trip started.

1.10. Return Ticket and Stay for a Family Member

If the Insured Person's hospitalization exceeds 10 days and if it is not possible to activate the coverage provided for in paragraph 1.8, the Insurer, through the Assistance Services, will bear the expenses to be incurred with the round trip plane ticket in tourist class by a family member, departing from the country of origin where the trip started, to stay with the Insured Person, taking responsibility for living expenses, up to a limit of € 150.00 per day, to a maximum of € 1,500.00. In any case, the maximum capital limit foreseen for this coverage is € 7,500.00.

1.11. Hotel Stay Extension

If after the occurrence of illness or accident, the status of the Insured Person does not justify hospitalization or repatriation, and if their return cannot take place on the date originally scheduled, the Insurer, through the Assistance Services, will take care of the expenses, if any, actually incurred with hotel stay by the Insured Person or the person accompanying the Insured Person, up to a limit of € 150.00 per day, to a maximum of € 1,500.00.

1.12. Repatriation of Deceased Insured Person

The Insurer, through the Assistance Services, will bear the costs of all formalities to be carried out at the place of death of the Insured Person, as a result of illness or accident, as well as those related to their repatriation to the place of burial in the country where the travel began.

If an Insured Person has died following hospitalization and the coverage provided for in paragraph 1.10 has been activated, the Insurer, through the Assistance Services, will also bear the costs of returning the family member to his home in the country where the travel began.

In any case, the maximum capital limit provided for this coverage is € 7,500.00.

1.13. Urgent Shipping of Medication

The Insurer, through the medical team of the Assistance Services, will bear the costs of sending to the place where the Insured Person is located, the Insured Person's essential medication of habitual use, as long as they do not exist or do not have substitutes where the Insured Person is located.

1.14. Theft or robbery of luggage Assistance in Portugal

In the event of theft or robbery of luggage and / or personal belongings, the Insurer, through the Assistance Services, will assist the Insured Person in notifying it to the relevant authorities.

Both in the case of theft and in the loss or misplacement of such belongings, if found, the Insurer, through the Assistance Services, will take care of sending them to the place where the Insured Person is located or to the Insured Person's domicile in the country of origin.

1.15. Theft or Robbery of Identification Documents Assistance in Portugal

If the Insured Person is the victim of theft or robbery of documents, the Insurer, through the Assistance Services, will assume the costs of transporting from the Hotel to the Embassy of the respective country so that the Insured Person can obtain a provisional identification document. The maximum limit for this coverage is € 250.00 and always presupposes that the Insured Person has previously notified the relevant Authorities.

1.16. Paediatric online medical Consultation

The Insurer, through the Assistance Service, in case of emergency, ensures the appointment of a Paediatric clinical consultation via video call. This guarantee has no limit to the number of appointments per year, with, however, a co-payment of 10,00€ per appointment borne by the Insured Person.

Chapter III General Exclusions

The accidents resulting from the list below are excluded from this coverage:
